

Kelowna Dining Guide

Kelowna is a fast-growing destination with lots of great restaurant options. The information below is by no means exhaustive and is simply meant to help you plan and point you in the right direction.

UBCO Neighbourhood

There are some restaurant options walking distance from campus, to find them walk east on University Way until you find Innovation Drive and turn left, walk about 1.5 km (20 min) and you will find the following alternatives:

- Gulfstream: located at the Four Points Sheraton Hotel by the airport– provides private booths, a lounge for socializing and cozy spots for watching the big game. Choose a salad, pasta, sandwich, pizza or one of our Sterling Silver® steaks before you head to the Kelowna airport
- Grizzly Bear Bistro Bar: The new homegrown dining concept from Kelowna serving Canadian cuisine & global flavours. Kids Friendly, Casual trendy setting with bar offering cocktails, local wines & brew.
- Kaya Sushi + Grill: One of the best Japanese restaurants in town featuring traditional and grilled Japanese food. Kaya specializes in fresh fish and variety of flavourful house special rolls, noodles and grill dishes
- Pita Pit
- A&W Canada
- Dairy Queen
- Quesada Burritos & Tacos

Downtown & Cultural District (~15 – 20-minute drive)

Take a cab, bus or rent an e-bike to head downtown to Bernard Avenue, or to the Cultural District on Water Street. This pedestrian-friendly district boasts indoor, patio and rooftop dining with too many options to list. For a great, relaxed atmosphere try BNA Brewing Company or Craft Beer Market. For a local, exclusive eating experience, visit Raudz Regional Table, Salt and Brick, or Waterfront Wines. For something familiar, visit the Cactus Club located at the Kelowna Yacht Club.
